1403 Kenwood

Wolf Sittler

Wood Working

Art is about thinking outside the box. It is about looking at what is and discovering how to configure and shape existing elements in new ways. My work in wood reflects a fluid union of form and function that adds visual interest to home or office environments.

www.wolfsittler.com

2

1403 Kenwood

Sarah Gaertner

Mixed media

My work is about the joy of creating. Because of my passionate focus, my pieces show a versatility and a common thread of imagination, whimsy and movement.

2

1403 Kenwood

Toni Saldana

Alcohol Ink

A native Texas Emerging Artist. Self taught abstract painter using alcohol inks on yupo paper. I love colors and not staying in the lines. There are no boundaries. My art asks you to explore your imagination. What do you see?

2

The Ann Richards School

Visual Arts Program

The Ann Richards School for Young Women Leaders is a public school (grades 6th-12th). The visual Arts program encourages students to pursue their creative interests and explore.

2

1403 Kenwood

Jan Pomeroy

Painting

When an artist creates something, part of their spirit is in that piece. My hope is that my art will have the spirit to bring peace and beauty to the observers of my work. Rich textures, found objects, rich colors and some mystery are in those pieces I create. Come and see!

Ken Stedman

Fabric Arts

I love everything about weaving. I love the different yarns, from the super soft baby alpaca to sturdy merino wool to silky threads. I love the ranges of colors, both natural and dyed, and the wide variety of textures. Finishing a hand-woven piece is a thrill and I love when someone wants to make one of my pieces their own!

Deda

Painting

I push, I pull, I scrape, I sand, I glob, I gouge, I torch, I touch, I crumple, I coax, I risk. Finally, I surrender to the riotous beauty of creation. Mixed media works in hot and cold wax, acrylic, oil, photography and collage.

1511 Alta Vista

Lisa Orr

Ceramics

Lisa Orr's artworks for the table often refer to traditional porcelain or restaurant whitewares, but with softer forms inspired by the playful and abundant qualities of Mexican earthenware. Her artwork is best presented with a freshly prepared meal.

6

1502 Alta Vista

Julie Williams

Mixed media

The artistic journey, for me, began at Rice University. This fascination continued with art studio courses at the University of Texas at San Antonio. Once one pauses to observe forms in nature, it is my feeling that it becomes a shared experience with the artist, part of our collective unconscious.

Jo Lagattuta

Mixed Media and Printmaking

“When you are in your creation and you are doing what you love to do, you become what you really are again. You are not thinking in that moment; you are expressing.” One could say I make art to please the eye and touch the soul.

www.jolagattuta.com

Heidi Stanfield

Mixed Media

I am a painter working in oil and a sculptor working in mixed media. I incorporate found objects into my sculptures. My paintings bridge representation and abstraction. My most recent work addresses loss and absence.

9

503 Pecan Grove

AJ Simon

Painting

I'm a painter, printmaker and assemblage artist. My paintings and prints are figurative-abstract. They come from observation/drawing of everyday things. My assemblage is from found objects and recycled books.

9

503 Pecan Grove

Ann Alva Wieding

Photography

Ann is a photographer that has always been captivated by the natural world and patterns that emanate from it. She strives to capture and display the visual drama that is the interplay between light and color and composition in the still image. www.bigredmuse.com

1501 Newning

Rahya Blackwell

Jewelry

Rahya jewelry designs are created by hand with a unique modern minimalist and timeless aesthetic.

10

1501 Newning

Robin Hegemier

Painting

When others view my work, I want them to feel a sense of ease or fun in the painting. At the same time, I want to draw them into the art with a curious desire to look a little closer. My personality is straight forward and happy, so most of my painting reflects that as well. I especially enjoy giving my animal paintings witty titles.

11

706 E Monroe

Kyle Gross

Jewelry

I create metal jewelry designs inspired by natural forms and textures and by an Eastern design sensibility. My jewelry designs are created in sterling silver, gold-fill, solid gold and other metals using various techniques such as soldering, fusing, roller-milled & hammer texturing, riveting and many others.

11

Joyce Stevens

Painting

Bits of found objects, book pages, house plans and sewing patterns often find their way into Joyce's mixed media layers as she celebrates the pure joy of each day by capturing it's fleeting magic on canvas.

11

706 E Monroe

Sally Fraser

Mixed Media & Painting

A roadmap of my cumulative art experiences would show the willingness to experiment with different mediums and be open to creative moments. My art is eclectic.

507 Lockhart

Sharon Truman Kelly

Tree Jewelry

Tree jewelry is jewelry for your trees! My unique variety of yard art is made of glass beads and tin or brass bells. These works are designed to be outdoors allowing the glass to be illuminated by sunlight and the bells to chime in the blowing winds.

12

507 Lockhart

Cynthia Bloom

Jewelry

My jewelry features antique, vintage and modern treasures that I have been collecting for many years - including old-world Czech Bohemian glass beads, iridescent glass buttons, crystals and gemstones. I infuse these dazzling objects d'art into unique creations.

Monica Cenicerros

Mixed Media

Mixed media artist known for her unique technique of rich color combinations along wood grain. By highlighting and working with the natural imperfections of each wood panel, she reminds us that there is beauty in even the simplest of things. “We should embrace individuality and show off what makes us unique. That’s where true beauty lives”
